LETTER OF THE DAY: W

THEME: WINTER

Literacy Tip: Rhymes are important! Even though young children may not understand the meanings of the rhymes, it's important for them to hear them. Rhymes expose children to words and rhythm that are not used in everyday conversation. Researchers have found that children who know rhymes find it easier to learn to read.

SONGS

Welcome Song: Hello, Friend
Hello, friend
Hello, friend
Hello, friend
It's time to say hello
Actions: American Sign Language

Dance Like Snowflakes
Dance like snowflakes, dance like snowflakes
In the air, in the air
Whirling, twirling snowflakes
Whirling, twirling snowflakes
Everywhere, everywhere

Let's All Do a Little Clapping
Let's all do a little clapping (x3)
Let's all do a little clapping
Let's all do a little clapping
For holiday cheer.
Repeat with: Bouncing, twirling, shaking

Goodbye Song: Goodbye, Friend
Goodbye, friend
Goodbye, friend
Goodbye, friend
It's time to say goodbye

Dressing for Winter

Color the winter clothes, cut them out, and paste them on the child. Give them a face and decorate their coat and pants.
